

Parent's Child Protection Advocacy

Referral Form for parents who have a child/children within the Child Protection Process.

advocacy
people

This service is only for parents who have children within the Child Protection Process and who have been assessed as having an eligible social care need.

Referrals will be accepted from involved professionals, provided the parent has given their consent to the referral being made. If you believe the parent does not have the capacity to consent, please give brief details in the 'Additional Information' section of this form.

There may be a waiting period before the case can be allocated to an advocate. Please ensure you let us know of any pressing timescales in advance, in order for us to prioritise cases accordingly.
